The powerful one-woman show, "Black Girl Speaks" is coming to the Capri Theater. The Saturday, Oct. 20 show has been cancelled and will make its Minneapolis debut Saturday, Dec. 1.

The show, presented by BGS Productions, Inc., began its legacy in 2005 by founder and playwright, Talitha V. Anyabwele, as a way to empower and deliver positive impactful messages to the masses. The show utilizes a monologue styled, educational, poetic approach to captivate audiences on a journey through one woman's mind, emotions, and total being.

BGS Productions Inc. Presents
BLACK
GIRL
SPEAKS
Show postponed until Saturday, December 1st
All tickets will be honored then
7:00 pm. Doors open at
The Capri Theater
2027 West Broadway
Minneapolis

[redacted]