

JXTALICIOUS last of summer happy hour

Written by

Join the 1108 Artists in a late summer studio crawl. Stroll through 9 Artist Studios while enjoying refreshments by Tabota Seyon of Right on Thyme Catering on Friday, September 27, 2013 6-9pm JXTA Artists' Cooperative at 1108 W. Broadway in North Minneapolis. Partake of cocktails, wine, beer and other non alcoholic drinks. Check out our spaces and learn about the diversity of art forms represented in the co-op. Enjoy the delicious vibe of good music, good art, and good people at JXTA's 1108 Artists' Cooperative.

The JXTA Co-Op Artists are: D.A.Bullock - film and video, Tiffany Roberson - natural hair and fashion, Travis Lee - photography, Daniel Kerkhoff - visual art, Tabota Seyon - visual and culinary art, Jamil Ford & David Witt - design and architecture, Christopher Harrison - visual art, Samuel Babatunde Ero-Phillips - environmental design, and Kenna-Camara Cottman - dance and drum. JXTAlicious will be an evening with artistic offerings from the Co-Op, surprise performances, and opportunities for networking and discovery.

Juxtaposition Arts is an art-based community development center located in North Minneapolis that annually engages thousands of youth and adults through innovative cross-disciplinary programs and services. Our mission is to develop community by engaging and employing young urban artists in hands-on education initiatives that create pathways to self-sufficiency. The mission of the 1108 Artists' Co-Op is to provide quality affordable art making and creative small business space to traditionally underrepresented emerging and established artists who have a demonstrated commitment to North Minneapolis.
