

Selby Avenue JazzFest promises lineup announced

Written by

Organizers of the eleventh annual Selby Avenue JazzFest recently announced this year's entertainment line-up.

"We're really pleased with the diverse line-up of entertainers that will be gracing the JazzFest stage this year," stated Mychael Wright, the "Father of the Fest" and noted Selby Avenue community leader. "Our musical line-up this year certainly has something for everyone. There will be plenty of other things to do including a kids' play area and food & art vendors--all surrounded by a wonderful spirit of community."

This year's lineup on the Allina Health stage will feature:

Dick and Jane's Big Brass Band-Back again for their 10th year, this group will kick off the day with a New Orleans-style procession throughout the festival grounds.

Walker West Music Academy Legends of Jazz-2012 marks this collection of Walker West faculty's tenth year at the Selby Ave JazzFest, playing a set of classics...from Ellington to Basie and more!

Brio Brass-44 musicians strong, this big band mixes in a lot of musical stylings including marches, ballads, polkas and lots of jazz!

Salsa Brosa- Led by Grammy and Latin Grammy-nominated Cuban pianist/vocalist Viviana Pintado and international Cuban conga player/vocalist Frank Rivery Garcia, Salsabrosa is known for their ability to take a party from 0 to 60 in a song. The band has an extensive repertoire of Latin styles including Salsa, Bachata, Merengue, Cha Cha Cha, Latin Hip Hop, and Bolero.
