

The empowering 'Black Girl Speaks' comes to the Capri

Written by Alaina L. Lewis

---

The powerful one-woman show, "Black Girl Speaks" is coming to the Capri Theater. The Saturday, Oct. 20 show has been cancelled and will make its Minneapolis debut Saturday, Dec. 1.

The show, presented by BGS Productions, Inc., began its legacy in 2005 by founder and playwright, Talitha V. Anyabwele, as a way to empower and deliver positive impactful messages to the masses. The show utilizes a monologue styled, educational, poetic approach to captivate audiences on a journey through one woman's mind, emotions, and total being.

The empowering 'Black Girl Speaks' comes to the Capri

Written by Alaina L. Lewis

---

