Diane Napper was recently elected to the PFund Foundation board of directors executive committee. Napper has been on the board for three years and was elected to be vice president of communications.

Napper owns and operates Taurus Moon Graphic Design, LLC, a freelance graphic design business. She has been in the graphic design industry for 15 years and has worked for American Express Financial Advisors, ING ReliaStar and Starkey Laboratories. In 2003, she joined PFund on the communications committee, creating newsletters, brochures, event programs and other materials. She joined the board in 2006 and is currently the chair of the communications committee. She has also staffed Pride booths in the Twin Cities and Mankato.

Napper is a native of Philadelphia, PA and earned her bachelor's degree in International Business from American University in Washington, D.C. She lives in Minneapolis with her husband, Shawn Holster.
