Spend an evening for part two of An Evening with tpt's MN Original series creating art through various mediums with internationally recognized Twin Cities artist, educator, and community activist, Ta-coumba Aiken. Through the power of art and narrative, Aiken will encourage dialogue about our similarities and differences and give insights to how we can celebrate them together. Each participant will leave the event with a piece of art created during the event, a DVD copy of the episode featuring Aiken, and the corresponding set of educator guides. This event will be held Thursday, February 28, 7-9 p.m. at the Minnesota Humanities Center, 987 Ivy Avenue East, St. Paul. Fee: $10/person, includes light snack and materials.
