

The Royal Bride Conference

Written by

Wednesday, 20 June 2012 16:16

The Women's Vessel group recently presented The Royal Bride conference.

The conference centered on the purity and sanctity of marriage and women longing for marriage. Participants included Pastor Joyce Lester and Minister Maisha Barrett. Several other presenters were present and shared topics ranging from women's health issues to domestic violence.

Conference organizer Jennifer Watson stated that this event was not only a way for women to connect with one another, but a way for each woman to gain a better understanding in her relationship with Christ.