One year after launching the Black Boys of Distinction mentorship program to change the negative statistics of black male youth, Pastor Tommy Quick is organizing the Project I Can 2 Symposium to continue to raise awareness about the importance of community-wide participation to help save black boys.

It will take place at Wofford College in Spartanburg, South Carolina, July 31 and August 1, 2009 with the theme, "Creating Positive Futures for Black Boys." During the symposium, Pastor Quick, Dr. Steve Perry and David C. Miller will serve as the keynote speakers. Several workshops providing applicable information and tools for those who want to assist will also take place. This event is free and open to the public.
